

The background of the entire image is a serene sunset over a vast, calm blue ocean. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a golden light across the sky and reflecting on the water's surface. The sky transitions from a pale yellow near the horizon to a soft, hazy blue at the top. In the lower-left quadrant, a small, white boat with a dark hull is seen from a distance, moving across the water. The overall mood is peaceful and inviting, suggesting a coastal lifestyle.
